

TIFFIN UNIVERSITY BASKETBALL Elite Prospect Camp

Coach Tom Church will be entering his 2nd season as the Head Coach of the Tiffin Men's Basketball program. The Tiffin Elite Prospect Camp is designed to attract high school players entering their freshman, sophomore, junior and senior years of high school. We are looking for student-athletes who have aspirations playing basketball at the collegiate level. Tiffin is an NCAA Division II University that competes in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. This camp will offer a full day of collegiate level workouts and competition to help our staff identify potential recruits for our program. T-shirts with numbers will be provided for campers allowing us to track and identify players at the camp. We are very excited about the opportunity to find the next addition to our Dragon family.
